FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

by Rabbi Alan B. Lucas

Shabuot is z'man matan torateynu—the holiday that celebrates the giving of the torah. There is a beautiful story in Midrash Rabbah that before God was willing to give us the torah—God wanted to be sure we would treasure it, respect it and value it for the priceless gift that it is:

"Rabbi Meir said: When the Jews stood before Sinai to receive the Torah, God said to them: "I swear, I will not give you the Torah unless you provide worthy guarantors who will assure that you will observe its laws."

The Jews responded, "Master of the world, our forefathers, our ancestors will be our guarantors!" "Your ancestors are not sufficient guarantors!" answered God. (In other words they were pretty good at observing torah, but not good enough!)

"Master of the world," the Jews exclaimed, "our prophets will guarantee our observance of the Torah." "No, still not good enough," said the Lord. "Bring proper guarantors and only then will I give you the Torah."

As a last resort, the Jews declared, "our children will serve as our guarantors!" Finally God was satisfied: "They truly are worthy guarantors," God replied and, "because of them I will give you the Torah." (Midrash Rabba, Song of Songs 1:4)

What I like about this midrash, is that the rabbis were suggesting that the torah is about our future and not about our past. We were given the torah not as reward for past performance but as an investment to help us achieve great things in the future. And since our children are our guarantors, we have an obligation to teach them and to teach them diligently as the torah says.

We at Temple Beth Sholom take this task very seriously. Our commitment to Jewish education for our children (of all ages) is unparalleled. We invest in our Religious School, our Machon Hebrew High School, our Early Childhood Center, our TBS Summer Camp; we support our Solomon Schechter Day School, Camps Ramah, USY and the Jewish Theological Seminary—because of our deep commitment to Jewish education and to making sure that torah lives into the next generation and beyond.

We have beautiful classrooms and outstanding facilities but we put our biggest investment in the people who teach and shape and love our children. We are so proud of each and every one of our teachers, and educators, who day in and day out, with love, nurture the next generation of Jews.

It is with no small sadness that after 10 wonderful years, Helayne Cohen, the Director of our Early Childhood Center is retiring to spend more time with her own family—and while we are very happy for her and for her family, we reluctantly part with her and we will miss her because of the love and care she brought to our littlest members—our children in our ECC each and every day. They say that no one is irreplaceable and while that may be true, some of us, like Helayne are very, very, very difficult to replace.

What a model of love and warmth, maturity and wisdom she was for our children (and us). How many nervous parents did she lovingly calm as they parted with their children for the first time in bringing them to our Nursery program, how many little hands did she hold, each and every day as she encouraged them when they were nervous, comforted them when they were sad and calmed them when they were anxious. She will be missed—and there is no way we can adequately thank her for all that she has done for our children.

Temple Beth Sholom is a remarkable place—but it is a remarkable place because of people like Helayne and so many others—who come here every day committed to the highest standards of professionalism and to the task of teaching torah at every conceivable level.

On Shavuot we once again stand at the foot of Sinai—we once again receive the torah. Here we are thousands and thousands of years after God decided to hand over this most precious of gifts—and so far we have been true to our promise: to raise a Jewish future by raising Jewish children. The giving of the torah was not a one-time event, not something that happened once a long time ago. No, each and every day it is given anew.

Every time we see that "light bulb" go off in a students brain, each time the gleam of understanding can be seen in their eyes, with every nod of understanding and with every smile of appreciation—we participate in the torah's renewal. It is a gift and we are privileged to be its teachers.

We have done much good work here, and for that yashar koach to each and every one of our wonderful teachers—but our work is not yet done as a new class prepares to enter; another generation of children eager to receive the torah. And we must be ready to welcome them with the same love and support that has greeted generations of children that have preceded them; they deserve no less.

So to Helayne—thank you for a job beyond well done—and to all of the rest of our teachers and educators: have a nice summer rest and we will see you in the fall as we go back to work creating the next generation of Jews—the torah demands no less.

Rabbi Alan B. Lucas

CANTOR'S NOTES

by Cantor Ofer Barnoy

Did you know that rabbis and cantors have been traditionally known to have a hard time working together?? While both clergy roles should intersect in a way to allow both rabbis and cantors to work in partnership towards the common good of their congregation and community, it has often been their enormous egos that got in the way. Rabbis would commonly like to tell their cantors how to perform their duties and cantors would often feel shortchanged by rabbis who considered themselves their boss instead of a partner. It made for much strife and there were no winners. Not the rabbis, cantors or their congregations.

I, on the other hand, have had the extreme good luck to work alongside a number of very nice rabbis who were truly interested in a partnership. I have benefitted greatly from their friendly attitudes and I believe that our congregations have benefitted too. From my first congregation as a part time cantor in Yorktown Heights, NY, working alongside Rabbi Stanley Urbus was a pleasure. He was a true gentleman with a quiet power, a throwback to a gone-by era of gentleness who embraced me at the young age of 16 and mentored me about congregational life and how to deal with all sorts of people in all sorts of situations. A few years later I served as a full timer alongside Rabbi David Chanofsky, another wonderful human being, a true mentch. This is the congregation where I met and married Marsha as she grew up there so needless to say he had a special regard for me and we had a great working relationship. I went on to work with Rabbi Joshua Skoff at The Park Synagogue in Cleveland, Rabbi Myron Fenster at Shelter Rock Jewish Center and a number of assistant and associate rabbis. Thankfully I got along with all of them but they were relatively short stints of 5 years or less.

It is more difficult to maintain a beneficial working relationship over a much longer period of time so I am extremely elated that for the past 16 years it has been my good fortune to work alongside our wonderful Rabbi Alan B. Lucas. I vividly remember our first meeting to prepare for our first High Holidays together, reviewing every part of the service to make sure that we were "on the same page" and it is absolutely amazing to me that we have now lead 15 High Holiday seasons together without once disagreeing on any part or aspect of it. I know that he deeply respects my knowledge of the liturgy and love for Jewish music and I equally respect his stupendous ability to write and deliver sermons that are ever-present, current and interesting. They are truly beautiful works of art and I hope that one day he will have the opportunity to write a "best of" book of his sermons so the rest of the Jewish world will have access to what we are privileged to hear week in and week out. Rabbi Lucas is celebrating 22 years at TBS and for 16 of those it has been an absolute pleasure to be his partner in serving this congregation. He and I are equally committed to attend every lifecycle event and every important moment in your lives. We have visited you together by your bedside at hospitals, rehabs and nursing homes, blessed and named your babies together at circumcisions and baby-namings, blessed your children with the priestly benediction at their Bar/Bat Mitzvahs and graduations and have officiated at your family weddings and funerals alike. At good times and at bad times alike we are there for you, together in partnership. And that's the way it should be. Human we are. Egos we have. And yet, we never let them get in our way of serving you, our congregants. We serve you with love, respect, understanding and partnership and for that I am truly blessed."

JUNE

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI KERBEL

by Rabbi Paul David Kerbel

It is June and I have started doing research on my high holy day sermon. In the process, I came across the following list of "Top Ten Words" in our Jewish tradition. The list and commentary were written by a rabbi in California, Rabbi Wayne Dosick. I will share with you his ten words with a synopsis of his definition and then share with you a few words he may have missed; I ask you to think about what words you would have added or excluded?

Rabbi Dosick writes: "with apologies to the late-night comic, David Letterman for making serious what he always makes funny, here is the "Top Ten List of Words Jews Should Always Say." These are words that will wrap us in our Jewish tradition and open our hearts and spirits to Jewish values."

10. Sechel – "wisdom" Sechel is more than book learning or acquired wisdom; Sechel involves the ability to perceive and discern; to understand and have insight. Sechel means having common sense and street smarts. Many people would argue that having sechel is as valuable or more valuable than an accumulation of diplomas.

9. Fabrent – "burning" In its usage, fabrent means passionate, deeply involved, committed. We speak of a "farbrenta yid", a Jew that is passionate Torah study and Jewish observance.

8. Emes – "truth" Our honor, our good name and our reputation all depend on our words being believable and believed. Being a Jew means to speak the truth always.

7. Kavod – "honor". In Jewish tradition, it is imperative that we honor: our parents, our spouse, our children, ourselves. Show honor to those who deserve it but we should not seek honor for ourselves.

6. Zeiskeit – "sweetness." While this term is often used to refer to the innocence of childhood and children, it is a term that reminds us that we all have the ability to recapture the sweetness that has been implanted within us.

5. Tzedakah – usually mistranslated as "charity" but, literally, "justice and righteousness." We do not just give out of the goodness of our hearts but because "it is our obligation; it is the right thing to do."

4. Chein – literally, "grace." In the prayer Sim Shalom, we ask God for peace, goodness and blessing, chein – grace,

"Our Jewish heritage gives us wise words, words of goodness and greatness. Rabbi Dosick suggests, 'we speak these words for when we embody and live these top ten words, our humanity is enhanced, our existence is enriched and are lives are ennobled.'

— Rabbi Paul David Kerbel

lovingkindness and mercy. Chein is dignity and graciousness. It is what we want from God and what our fellow human beings want from each and every one of us.

3. Rachmones – "compassion" from the word meaning "womb." We ask God to deal with us not only with justice but with an overwhelming sense of mercy and compassion. We need to develop a stronger sense of compassion, caring and sharing. We need to speak kind, loving words, we need to have rochmones and give rochmones.

2. Naches – pleasure/satisfaction/pride. Most often used by saying, "my children give me so much nachas." We should not only enjoy the naches are children and grandchildren give us but also share in the joys of our extended family and friends and always try 'to be there, in the moment.'

1. And the number one word that Jews should say: Mensch. A mensch is a person of either gender who is decent, kind and honest; a good person who is fully human and humane. It is the greatest and most worthy characteristic we can aspire to.

I can think of a few words that I think are missing from this list: I would have included: Kedusha, "holiness", Teshuvah "repentance", Mitzvot, commandment/good deed and Derech Eretz, "the appropriate way to act and treat people." Nevertheless the ten words Rabbi Dosick chose are ten words that affect everything we do that is important and everything that we can do to shape the world and make it a better place. Our Jewish heritage gives us wise words, words of goodness and greatness. Rabbi Dosick suggests, "we speak these words for when we embody and live these top ten words, our humanity is enhanced, our existence is enriched and are lives are ennobled."

As we enjoy the blessings of summer, as we take a walk, enjoy the beach or hike or climb mountains, may we keep these words in mind and emerge from the summer energized, enriched and - a little more holy.

דוגמה אישית Community Setting Examples

By the time you read this article we will have celebrated our 65th Anniversary Gala. Thank you to Lisa Levine, Karen Spitalnik, Donna Bartolomeo and the committee for all their work on this event. Approximately 300, congregants and friends of Rabbi Lucas and TBS filled our ballroom. In addition to honoring our Senior Rabbi, we honored the learning opportunities that live on in our halls and hopefully, will continue to take place for years to come. Learning takes place on many levels. Not only do we teach our children and adults to pray and read Hebrew but we also teach art and music, we learn about our diversity, and camaraderie, we watch movies, we eat popcorn, we plant flowers, we celebrate life together, we mourn together, we console and we even sample wine and scotch.... Torah teaches us: we need each other.

Who is Temple Beth Sholom? I say who because TBS is not just a building, TBS is you and me. TBS is a community of individuals that stands in solidarity on many important issues. As mentioned, the theme of our gala was not just celebrating 65 years of existence, which is an accomplishment in and of itself, but we also recognized 65 years of education.

Malka Me-Zahav, for those who don't know, was our Hebrew School Director for 25 years. When I think of Malka, I hear her saying, "Shalom Yeladim", as the kids entered the building. Malka was so much of what we stand for wrapped up in one beautiful morah (teacher). She represented Israel, she represented Jewish traditional values, thoughtfulness, and learning and like a true Sabra, just that perfect mix of enough tough and sweet to get the job done. I wanted to share this at the gala but Malka couldn't make it, so I am sharing it here. Yasher Koach Malka for the personal example you set as an educator.

This June we will be saying goodbye to Helayne Cohen, our Early Childhood Center Director. She will be leaving us to spend more time with her growing family and we are happy for her. We are also happy that she has offered to mentor whomever takes her position. We all agree Helayne's shoes will not be an easy pair to fill.

John Steinbeck once stated, "I have come to believe that a great teacher is a great artist...Teaching might even be the greatest of the arts since the medium is the human mind and spirit."

Thank you to All of you who feed our minds and spirits all year round.

Speaking of spirits, I want to say thank you to Dr. Jay Merker, I give a lot of Yasher Koachs to our spiritual leaders but let's not forget our "spirits leader"; we can always count on Dr. Merker for being prepared with the right "spirit" for our Kiddush l'chaim. His contribution is warming in many ways.

Time moves on and so do people.

Morty Schaja will be stepping down from the Executive Board but we will not let him get away entirely. He promises to continue serving as a financial advisor and a trustee. Tammy Fisher will also be stepping down but Tammy will continue on the Board of Trustees and working on Social Action projects. Thank you Morty and Tammy for your continued support and dedication.

The Executive Board extends a welcome to Madeline Yousefzadeh and Carrie Gordon. Madeline will be our Vice President of Religious Affairs; Carrie will be our Vice President of Education. We look forward to working together. On behalf of our congregation I would like to thank those trustees who are retiring from the board for volunteering their time and expertise to our temple; and extend a welcome to our new board members.

As a teacher, June was a month full of reflection. As I would sit and reflect on the progress report for each child, I would recall who was this student in September; what goals did I set for this child; did we reach them; where did we fall short; where did he or she grow? What recommendations, observations should I share with his or her next teacher? As I sit here writing this article, I find that I am asking the same questions of myself. I will give you my progress report at the installation ceremony.

Just as students move on to their next phase, so do we move on. Life is good when we can move on to something new; growth is an indication that we are alive and well.

Yasher Koach Congregation Temple Beth Sholom of Roslyn Heights, NY for being an exemplary community, may you continue leading by example for another 65 years... doogmah eesheet.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

By Donna Bartolomeo,

Yesterday we had the 65th anniversary Gala honoring TBS and Rabbi Alan Lucas. The event was a huge success. As I looked around the room I thought about my first days at TBS and how I was welcomed by this community and have since been so lucky to work with such an amazing group of volunteers.

Morty Schaja, currently the Financial Secretary, is finishing his term on the Executive Board. Morty has always been there as a support and source of information. Tammy Fisher, currently Vice President of Education, is also finishing her term on the Executive Board. Tammy thank you for all you have done and will continue to do for me and TBS.

Each June we have to say goodbye to the four year olds and our graduates from Machon Beth Sholom. Sad and exciting all at the same time. This year there will also be another bittersweet farewell. Helayne Cohen who started the same time as I did 10 years ago will be leaving her position as Early Childhood Director and retiring. Helayne, you will be missed and I will miss enjoying each new year with you, your students and staff. I am thrilled you will be able to spend the time with your grandchildren. Enjoy because as our children did, your grandchildren will grow up way too quickly. Along with Helayne I will miss her husband Jerry. Jerry always shared ideas, thoughts, helped set up programs and every once and while told a few jokes. Anyone who knows Jerry, knows how much he admires and loves Helayne.

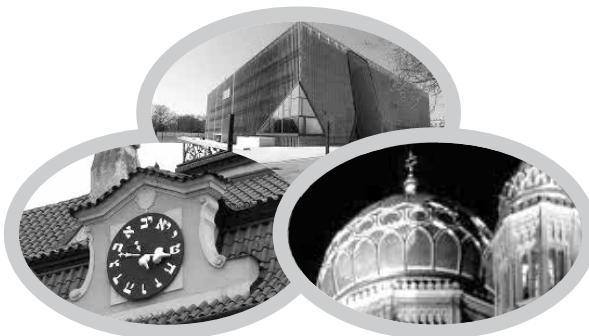

Last night I saw many of the members who are living in the city full or part time, living in Florida for the winter or are just so busy with work and family that we have not had time to connect. Catching up was great and I am looking forward to hearing more when the summer is over and we get ready for the holidays.

I am fortunate to work with the finest professional staff, Rabbi Lucas, Rabbi Kerbel, Cantor Barnoy, Helayne Cohen, Sharon, Solomon, Rabbi Jensen and Holly Firestone. We learn together, we laugh together, we sometimes cry together and we share experiences, concerns and anything else that comes our way. To the Executive Board and Board of Trustees: I would like to thank you for your support throughout the year.

As we sat at the Gala I realized how blessed I am when I looked to my left and saw my office staff Barbara Cooper and Dawn Ruggiero. They were already talking about putting the montage and journal up on the website and out on Constant Contact. They both make my life a lot easier, never say no, always have a smile on their faces and are there for all of our members' needs. Kathy Rogers, our bookkeeper, has been an asset to our staff. Then there was Bob Spampinato, our Facilities Director who along with our staff keep the synagogue clean, heated, air conditioned and somehow are able to get the most of every area of this building.

To both of my staffs THANK YOU!!!!

BARNET & ANNETTE OSTROW EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

by Helayne Cohen, Early Childhood Center Director

I can still remember the feelings I had on my very first day here at TBS. I knew that I would face some challenges and savor accomplishments, trying to keep up with what was going to be an enormous job. What I learned immediately was that I would have many hand holders along the way easing the responsibility I chose to undertake. The hand holders were my invaluable assistant, Shahrzad Salih, the dedicated, compassionate teachers, the parents of the school, Rabbi Lucas, Cantor Barnoy, Donna Bartolomeo and her office staff, Sharon Solomon, our religious school principal, Pearl Halegua, our current synagogue president, our very supportive Board of Education, currently led by Tammy Fisher, Carrie Gordon and Phyllis Fried and Bob Spampinato and his maintenance staff. Most recently, thank you to Rabbi Kerbel. And, I would be remiss, if I didn't extend an enormous sense of gratitude to my husband and children.

I am certain that if I did not have the many hand holders through the years of my position as a director, it would have been incredibly difficult to establish a "second home" for the hundreds of children who have been a part of the TBS preschool. The teachers in this school, including my incredible assistant, Shahrzad Salih, are also the ones who held the smallest of hands. They were the ones who wiped away tears and encouraged our children. They fostered the bonds of friendship and honored the emotions of each child in their charge. They gave hugs to the child who needed one and smiled at each one with pride for their daily accomplishments. They taught and modeled from the heart.

I have always had the difficulty of not being able to control time. God has granted us the gift of life that is marked by the concept of time. My own children were growing up so quickly - I wished to slow down time just a bit so I could take in the many unique and wonderful qualities they developed through their life experiences and, so too, do I feel that way in regard to what I learned over the many years here at TBS. But we know that time stands still for no one. So, into each day, I put, and imparted to our children here, equal parts of faith, patience, courage, hope, tolerance, kindness, rest, lots of fun, play, and a heaping spoon full of good humor. All of these qualities served me well as director of the Early Childhood Center.

I look back on the years here as a true gift. TBS gave me the opportunity to help parents raise children with the highest respect for their own child's educational and spiritual journey. Honoring each child served as a common thread throughout my tenure here and will remain with me long after I leave. I have been blessed to be in the position to make a difference in young children's lives and hopefully in their parent's lives as well. It was always my goal to teach the next generation to be kind, have faith, be patient, dream big, value other people's traditions, make play a part of every day and to smile!

 I am always going to hold dear the memories that were made here and for the time I spent with the wonderful children of the ECC. They will always serve as my footprints as I begin my next chapter. L'Hiraot.

Congratulations to the following children who will be moving up and moving on. Yasher Koach!

TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM of Roslyn

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

by Sharon Solomon, Religious School Director

It's hard to believe that the end of the school year is upon us. Looking back at all the wonderful programs that our students participated in throughout the year, we truly had a celebration of Torah education. The religious school has already begun planning great programs for the new year. Please be sure to send in your registration forms for 2016-17 promptly.

In May, the New York Metropolitan Region of the United Synagogue (METNY) honored several of our Zayin (7th grade) students at their annual Keter Torah Award ceremony held at Shelter Rock Jewish Center. We are very proud of the following students who are acknowledged for demonstrating outstanding achievement in Judaic Studies as well as exemplary attitude in derekh eretz. They are: Maxwell Bergman, Alexandra Levine, Jessica Kessler, Joshua Kessler, Aaron Kohen, Joshua Liswood, Harry Meiowitz, Jasmine Samadi and Ethan Wachsman.

I am very excited to take part this month in a special five day professional development program in Atlanta run by the Center for Israel Education (CIE). The CIE produces and disseminates material about modern Israel geared to grades two through six. I will be accompanied by two educators, Gerri Blum and Roya Mizrahi and we are eager to bring exciting materials back to TBS.

In addition, I will be going to Israel over the summer through the Makom/Jewish Education Project. The Makom philosophy was born out of a recognition that "loving Israel" is not sustainable without knowledge, and that "knowing about" Israel is insufficient without personal connection. I look forward to obtaining innovative and age appropriate curriculum materials to embellish our TBS learning on this trip as well. This program is geared for middle school grade students.

It is my pleasure this year to present the Barbanel award to Dr. Nathan Baruch who is an incredible, dedicated Torah educator. Dr. Baruch has created a customized Vav sixth grade Parshat HaShuvah (Torah portions of the week) textbook/workbook. His dedication to Torah study is remarkable and we are honored to have Dr. Baruch on our staff. Many thanks to the Barbanel family for their generous annual gift in memory of Hilda Barbanel. Many of our teachers have merited from this contribution which is truly appreciated, year after year.

Machon: The Completion of a Great Year!

As the school year winds down for Machon Beth Shalom, we can reflect on a year of outstanding programs and interactive learning. Thanks to Rabbi Sean Jensen, Rabbi Alan Lucas, Danielle Orville and myself, our students are better prepared to understand the complexities of the Arab-Israeli conflict, have studied about anti-semitism and prejudice, learned about leadership from Mike Hirsch and shared many discussions on how to apply Judaism to their individual lives.

We express our thanks to the Jewish Education Project of UJA Federation of New York, Anita and Bill Baron, our President, Pearl Halegua and Executive Vice President, Rebecca Altman for their constant care and concern about Machon. TBS's Education leadership, V.P. Tammy Fisher and Board of Education chairs Carrie Gordon and Phyllis Fried were always there to help and offer advice.

VP PROGRAMMING

by Steven Goldenberg

5 775-5776. The theme for the year has been "65 Years—And Still Going Strong," with the TBS anniversary culminating in the Gala on May 22. What a turnout, at which time we honored Rabbi Alan Lucas, in this, his own milestone year. And thank you to all who contributed to the electronic journal. And of course, Yasher Koach to the entire Gala Committee, co-chaired by Lisa Levine and Karen Spitalnick.

Even though the Gala is now behind us, there will be more time for reflection and moving forward. Please stroll through the synagogue to see the magnificent displays put together by our beloved museum curator, Bat-Sheva Slavin. And we will plan on a Sunday breakfast this autumn to reminisce about where we have been, and to where we are going, coordinated by Judy Goldberg and Debby Brosowsky.

June will be yet another busy month. The annual Israel Day Parade in NYC on Sunday, June 5 is an opportunity for the entire Jewish community (and others) to show support. Besides the Sisterhood Spring Dinner and Installation on June 2, and the Men's Club BBQ and Texas Hold'em Tournament on June 9, three consecutive Friday evenings are planned. MBS graduation and confirmation takes place on June 3. Installation of TBS officers will be held on June 10—we welcome Madeline Yousefzadeh and Carrie Gordon to the Executive Board, and a number of Trustees to the BOT that evening. And please join us on June 17 at 6:30 PM for a Shabbat BBQ & TBS Reunion, with dinner catered by Ben's, followed by Friday Night Live Kabbalat Services at 8 PM; see flier for more details.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to all of you who have supported me in this, my first year as VP Programming. I see firsthand how blessed we are to have so many who work so passionately to make TBS "more than just a synagogue."

Wishing you and yours a terrific summer!

BethRock New Board 2016-2017

Robin Feldman, USY Advisor

BethRock USY has had an incredible year. Our membership increased almost 50%, we had our first annual chapter overnight, and we had more events than ever before! From our social action events (hosting the Ruach divisional event where we donated clothing and toiletries and in the fall making sandwiches for a local shelter), to our social events (murder mystery, Krav Maga and Food Israeli Good!), we have something for everyone to enjoy! Next year we hope to incorporate even more events including a Havdalah/Pajama/Movie Night, Shabbat programming, ice skating, bowling, volunteering at local shelters and of course keeping some of our favorites which always include food (whether eating, cooking or both)!

We also have four BethRock members serving on the divisional board (out of six positions!) and have two members serving on regional board (including President!). BethRock has officially put themselves on the map in our division! We hope everyone has an amazing summer and we look forward to welcoming our members back from camp, vacation and summer programs and welcoming new members too! If you have any questions about what USY has to offer, please feel free to email me at

Feel free to bring your lunch and dessert from kiddush to our class!

MEN'S CLUB CORNER

by Michael Mand, President

This being my last article as Men's Club president, allow me a little personal reflection and evaluation:

As June approaches – I'm writing this in early May – it occurs to me that I'm almost a year older since I began my second, non-contiguous term as Men's Club president. I'm also a year wiser with respect to good leadership and human nature.

First let me speak about our events, however. Some members like Comedy Night; some like the Latke Party; some like the Wine and Scotch Tastings. But my favorite Men's Club event is the night we invite a local brewer to speak to us about beer. Perhaps that is why the only times we've sponsored this event is when I was president. (There has to be some executive leeway for the chief executive.) This year a brewer from The Oyster Bay Brewery came to discuss some the beers and ales they brew up there on The Sound. I'd like to report that the evening was a huge success. (I don't really know, actually, because I'm writing this before the event has actually occurred.) Here are some beer facts for you:

There are two types of beers – lagers and ales.

1. Ales are made with top-fermenting yeasts which produce esters that can affect the flavor.
2. Lagers are made with bottom-fermenting yeasts which add very little flavor to the brew.
3. Bottom-fermenting yeasts can be reused.
4. There are some exceptions to "yeast rule".

Now you know.

On May 22, Temple Beth Sholom celebrated its 65th anniversary with a salute to Rabbi Lucas. The entertainment was provided by The Little Wilson Band featuring my friend, Allen Santoriello. I only mention that because I was the one who recommended this band as a change of pace from the same old-same old. I'm confident that the band didn't disappoint. Men's Club was honored to sponsor the kippot for the event. We are proud to have been a part of the gala; we are proud to be a part of TBS.

As always, Men's Club ends the year with a barbecue and Texas Hold'em tournament on Thursday, June 9. All are invited to join us to watch Yoram Solomon defend his title. I usually do not participate in the card game as I am trying to break with my tradition at losing at poker. I figure there are two ways. One is to win. The other is not to play. I've chosen the latter as having the more predictable result. Oh, I almost forgot – Sisterhood will be sponsoring the beer for the barbecue. Thank you, thank you.

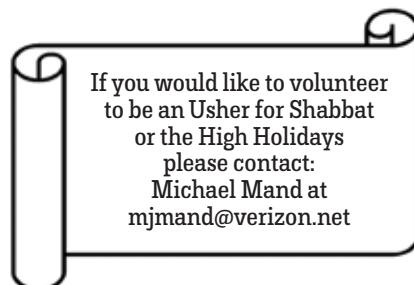

Final thoughts:

I had high hopes of taking the baton from my predecessor, Steve Goldenberg, and building on his accomplishments. I asked my board members for ideas and I got some; some good ones. One of the best, I thought, was by past president, David Levine, who recommended that Men's Club sponsor a class in minyan leadership and davening, and gabbai rishon instruction. I approached Cantor Barnoy who agreed to help out. Perhaps we can do this in the future.

Earlier this year the Religious Affairs Committee, on which I sit, asked if Men's Club would take responsibility for organizing the ushers who serve on the High Holidays. Past president, Gil Lipper, has been leading this sub-committee the past few years, but he has expressed his wishes not to continue. The position remains unfilled as the days approach more rapidly than you'd like to imagine. I placed an ad in last month's bulletin asking anyone who is interested in ushering on Shabbat and the High Holidays to contact me.

As for me, I will be stepping down from the executive board of the Men's Club of Temple Beth Sholom once my year is over. I wish our Men's Club all the best next year.

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Cindy Feldman, President

It's June! It's Time to Party & to Reflect!

On June 2nd Sisterhood will be holding its annual Spring Dinner to honor Wende Jager-Hyman and Deborah Brosowsky as our BQLI Women of Achievement along with our Torah Fund Honoree, Daniela Klein. Your Executive Board has planned an exotic night at Shiraz of Great Neck. It promises to be a wonderful evening filled with friends and perhaps a surprise or two! We hope you will be joining us.

Almost immediately after our evening celebration, the party continues at our end of year Shacharit Service led by Sisterhood and Zahava Rosenfeld on June 6th at 9:15 AM in the Main Sanctuary, followed by a beautiful luncheon for all.

Don't want the party to end? Join your "sisters" at the BQLI Gala two days later on June 8th. We will meet up with Grace Schessler and all our friends from surrounding Sisterhoods to celebrate our Women of Achievement, share stories about our experiences this year, and learn from each other one last time before our summer break.

It will be challenging to moderate eating and keep our girlish figures, but it's worth the risk! We will see the women who inspired us all year long at these back to back celebrations, taking a fond look back on what we accomplished together this year.

Mahvash Zarabi: How did you convince G & I Bakery to donate all the ingredients for the Great Big Challah Bake? Of course it was your endearing smile that did the trick! Thank you for coordinating all our meals for our Sisterhood meetings and for knowing where to find the nicest pashminas to add to our wardrobes- every time we wear them we think of our Fall dinner and you!

Helene Lurie: How did you coordinate so many UJA Fourth Week projects? Paper goods, hot beverage gift baskets, and personal hygiene products filled the shelves at local pantries! The site visits you arranged helped us to understand poverty on Long Island on a deeply personal level. Your sisters are more determined to continue the fight against poverty on Long Island as a result of your efforts.

Mimi Weitz: Thank you for cultivating such a wonderful relationship with Mark Krieger of Beautiful Memories Gemach of New Hyde Park. It is with your kindness and dedication that we were able to come together as a community to collect over 400 dresses and suits to distribute to battered women living in shelters so they can return to the work force. We wish you and Ken well in your new home in Arizona and will miss you!

Natalie Postelnik: Your charm and kindness landed us an evening many will never forget with famed kosher chef, Susie Fishbein. Now we know Susie, like you know Susie- and Oh, what a Gal!

Brad Reedy: The Journey of the Heroic Parent
Brad Reedy (guest parent educator and author);

Roya Mizrahi and Fran Shalot: Remember writing the Educational Brochure? It was time-consuming, but you created a slate of classes with an array of learning opportunities that "wowed" our membership. The last Lunch & Learn was a huge success with Bat-Sheva Slavin featuring an Israeli film, Orchestra of Exiles, which fascinated all who attended.

Cindy Katz & Amy Magid: Where would we be without your innovative and dedicated efforts to run all our fundraisers this year (& every year)??! Challah subscriptions; honey jar sales; the Judaica Shop; raffles; Cards & Games Day; vendors at our events, including the Pampered Chef and table-cloths from Israel; and our plant sale! But my favorite, Purim Shalach Manot gift baskets, got even better when you included young families in helping you to pack bags for some of our homebound members. You bridged our younger and older members in a meaningful and powerful way. Yasher Koach!

Debbie Agulnick: You inspired me when you coordinated families, including Dads and grandparents, to bake their own Hamantaschen, with close to 100 participants! The smiles on everyone's faces brought tears to my eyes- you are a true leader, and I have much to learn from you!

Wende Jager-Hyman & Debby Brosowsky: Wende, thanks for bringing Sisterhood into the 21st century with PayPal links to all our events. We are grateful for your skills at leading our bi-monthly book clubs and current events discussion groups and always making each one of our members feel heard and that they matter. Debby, thank you for keeping us focused on the task at hand; you also understand the ladies we serve in a way that helped us to make sure our programs were relevant and served our community.

Sherrie Goldstein: How do you unravel our books? You are patient, dedicated, and persistent to "figure out" our finances and investments. But you are so much more than our Treasurer. You are a true "sister." Thank you for making that hospital run to Molly Chernofsky with me- I will never forget our car rides.

Lisa Schlesinger: You are our matriarch. You have dedicated more than 20 years to Torah Fund and we are so grateful to you. Thank you for teaching me the etiquette of leadership- you are quite a role model. You do it with grace, dignity, and love. We wish you well as you pass the baton to Janet Eder.

All those who attended Brad Reedy's Program: Thank you for coming out to hear about something so personal. Your sensitivity, support, and open-mindedness are comforting- that's why I love this job so much.

SAVE THE DATE: September 8th, Welcome Back Sisterhood Fall Meeting! I look forward to another year of learning together with you and from you!

All the best, Cindy Feldman

A CREDO FOR TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM

In 1967, after lengthy discussions, the Board of Trustees adopted a document called the Beth Sholom Credo. It reaffirmed the principles and practices on which our synagogue was founded in 1951. The Credo was approved by the membership at a meeting on March 22, 1967. As we celebrate Beth Sholom's 65th Anniversary, it would be interesting to have your reactions to the Credo and its viability today. Your comments would be most welcome.

"Temple Beth Sholom is dedicated to the practice of traditional Judaism. As a Conservative Congregation, we regard the tradition, not as something static, but rather as continuously developing from its earliest sources to the present.

We believe that we enrich our tradition by accepting new interpretations and discoveries as the searching mind of man strives to move closer to God. By this process, our tradition avoids the pitfalls of ignorance and superstition, and renews its vitality, thereby enabling it to meet the deepest needs and highest aspirations of every age.

We affirm our allegiance to the United States of America while cherishing Eretz Yisroel as the cradle of our religious heritage and the center of the renaissance of Jewish peoplehood.

Temple Beth Sholom implements its beliefs by the following means:

A religious school which draws upon the teachings of the past to instruct our children in the religious and ethical concepts of traditional Judaism and to help them participate happily, intelligently and creatively in modern Jewish life;

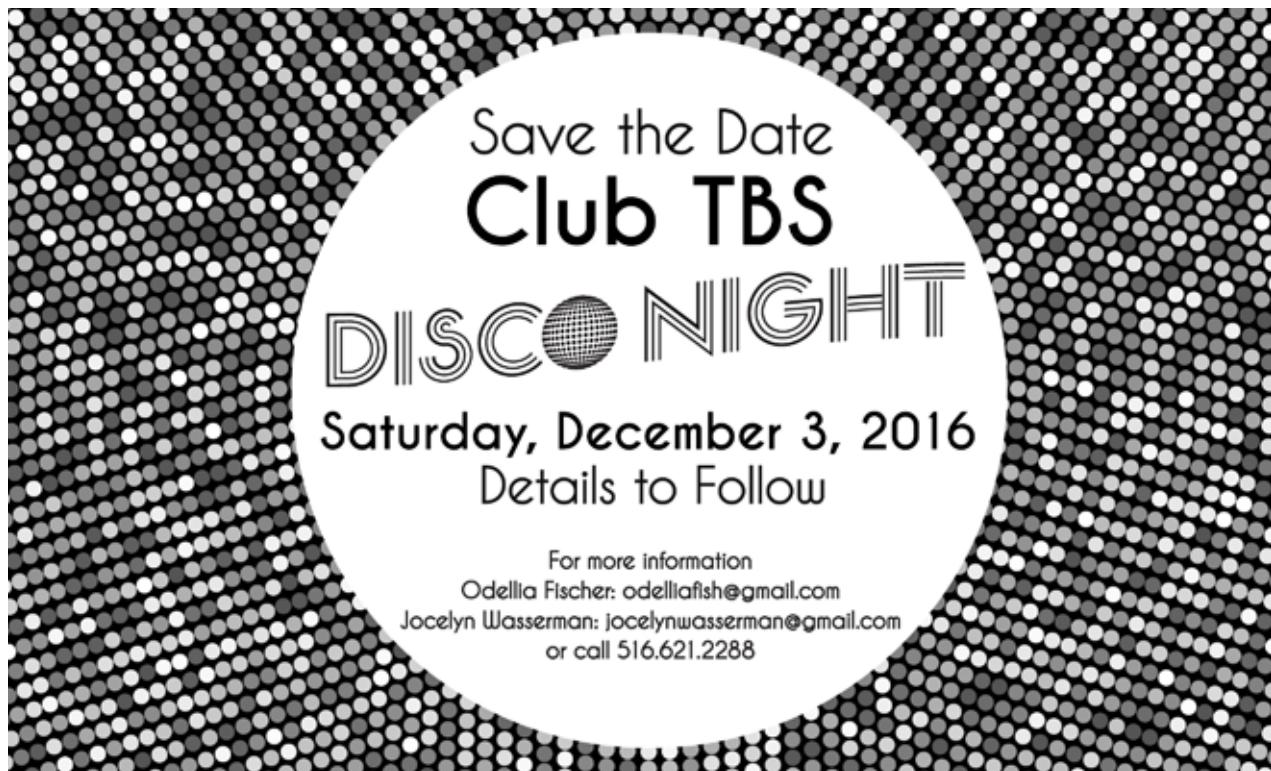

Traditional worship services which are receptive to innovation and development;

A complete religious, educational and social program which offers spiritual and intellectual fulfillment to the members of the Congregation.

In our personal practice of traditional Judaism as a way of life, we believe in the use of ritual prayer in a manner that contributes to individual spiritual growth.

We also believe that it is incumbent upon the Temple as an organization, and each member of the congregation individually, to become involved in movements which champion the cause of human dignity and social justice.

Temple Beth Sholom is affiliated with the United Synagogue of America, which is the lay organization of Conservative Synagogues; supports the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, which is the academic headquarters of the Conservative Movement; and recognizes the Rabbinical Assembly of America as our sole organized rabbinical authority."

MEMBERSHIP HAS ITS REWARDS

By Irving S. Chernofsky, Chairman Cemetery Committee

When you think of a membership benefit, you will rarely, if ever, think about the cemetery. But one of the lesser known benefits of membership at Temple Beth Sholom is exactly that. Temple Beth Sholom, as a service to its members, makes available plots at New Montefiore Cemetery, in an area reserved for Temple Beth Sholom. These plots are available at very reasonable prices. We recently surveyed Beth Moses Cemetery, Wellwood Cemetery and New Montefiore Cemetery. All of these cemeteries are located in Pinelawn, NY, less than a 30 minute drive from the Temple. We determined that the Temple is providing a significant discount, to its members, on the prices for plots in the Temple area. This discount is approximately 33% to 50% lower than the prices that the cemeteries currently sell plots for.

The Temple can provide members with either single or double plots, or family plots of four or more graves. The family plots have a single family monument that has the family name, and individual footstones for each interment. Each single plot can have an individual headstone, and each double plot can have either two single headstones or a double headstone, at the family's option. If you have any interest in purchasing plots in the Temple Beth Sholom area of New Montefiore Cemetery, please contact the Temple office.

In addition, Temple Beth Sholom in conjunction with New Montefiore Cemetery, now allows grave plantings. When an interment is made on our cemetery grounds and the family wishes to arrange for a planting, they will be allowed to plant Mature Yews (consisting of 3 shrubs 18"- 24" wide) purchased from the cemetery. Families that wish to have grave plantings will be required to purchase "Perpetual Care" from the cemetery. These shrubs do wonders in improving the look of the gravesite. Grave plantings will also be allowed at the Temple Beth Sholom area of Beth Moses Cemetery. All families that have already had an interment at either cemetery and desire grave plantings should contact the cemetery to make the appropriate arrangements.

The Jewish way of life includes many Jewish life cycle events. During a typical Shabbat service at Temple Beth Sholom you can witness any of several of our Jewish life cycle events. You can witness the naming of a baby girl and her welcoming into the Jewish community; you can witness a bar or bat mitzvah, where our Jewish adolescents are transformed, right before our eyes, into Jewish adults; or you can witness an aufruf, where two of our Jewish adults prepare for life as a married couple.

Just as there is a Jewish way of life, there is also a Jewish way of death. Two basic considerations come into play when death strikes and the laws of death and mourning become applicable. One consideration involves the principle of kevod hamet, treatment of the deceased with reverence and respect. The other involves the principle of kevod hechai, concern for the welfare of the living. In respect for members of our congregation who have suffered a loss, Temple Beth Sholom allows the family to hold funeral services at the Temple.

Yes, membership has its rewards, and although we hope you will never need these membership benefits, it's nice to know that they are available to you if you do need them.

For more information, please contact Irving Chernofsky at 516-626-9025 or irving1@optonline.net or Temple Executive Director - Donna Bartolomeo at 516-621-2288 or dbartolomeo@tbsroslyn.org.

Why not sponsor a Sunday minyan breakfast? Your contribution will celebrate a simcha or honor the memory of a loved one.

In addition, a particularly meaningful way to commemorate a milestone in your life is to sponsor a Kiddush on Saturday morning, thereby sharing your simcha with the Temple family.
Please call: David Oestreich at 621-3046 or the Temple office at 621-2288 for details or to reserve a date.

We know what it takes to make a strong Jewish community. Doing our job well is just the beginning.

We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve the community in times of growth and happiness as well as times of grief. It's not surprising we've served the Jewish community for over 100 years. How we've served is the surprising part. David Rubin and his entire staff work tirelessly in serving the Jewish community, but then, that's part of our philosophy and tradition.

We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve and give back to the community.

Cemetery Prices Set To Increase

Prices for cemetery plots in the Temple Beth Sholom section of New Montefiore Cemetery are scheduled to increase effective July 1st 2016. Prices for family plots (4 or more graves) will be increased to $2,000 per grave. Prices for single or double plots will be increased to $3,000 per grave. We have determined that the Temple is providing a significant discount, to its members, on the prices for plots in the Temple area. This discount is approximately 50% to 25% lower than the prices that the cemetery currently sell plots for in this area of the cemetery.
