FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

by Rabbi Alan B. Lucas

Transactional Judaism vs Relational Judaism What Shavuot Comes To Teach Us

There is an old joke that dates back to the time when many rabbis were so proud of their academic degrees that they insisted on putting their PhD's in front of their rabbinic titles. This gave rise to the complaint: When rabbis became doctors, Judaism became sick. But that was then and this is now – and the new challenge to Judaism is not from an overintellectualized pompous presentation of our faith by its rabbis, but rather from the way that many of its followers have come to identify and relate to our sacred tradition. The new crisis is not top down, but bottom up.

It seems that many Jews no longer relate to Jewish tradition as part of an ongoing relationship, but as a series of transactions.

Transactional Judaism focuses on the near term and on the transaction at hand. Maybe you need a rabbi for a funeral, or a date for a Bar Mitzvah. Transactional Judaism has no loyalty to any particular institution or professional – it is about self-interest and who can meet my needs at any particular moment. Transactional Judaism is about price – how much will it cost me to attend Services for the High Holy Days, and very little about loyalty, especially if the shul down the block offers me High Holy Day tickets cheaper. Transactional Judaism is about what you get.

Relational Judaism tends to think long term and considers today's transaction as merely one in a series of many. Relational Judaism is about loyalty and it develops strong attachments to particular institutions and professionals. Relational Jews would never think of having their child's Bar or Bat Mitzvah somewhere else or with someone else – this is MY shul, this is MY rabbi. If transactional Judaism is about self-interest, relational Judaism is about mutual interest. If transactional Judaism is about what you get, relational Judaism is as much about what you give.

There is little doubt that the trend of late has been away from relational Judaism toward a more transactional Judaism. Whereas shul-shopping is not a new phenomenon – what is new is the way people shop for shuls. Once upon a time, shul-shopping meant looking for a rabbi you could respect, a community you could love, a davening that you felt comfortable with. Today, shul-shopping means finding a shul that will give you what you want at the price you want. I want a Bar Mitzvah for my son and I want it on such and such a date. Can you give me what I want? And even if we can meet the transactional Jew's needs, their loyalty is constantly in play. Rabbi there is a shul not far from here and they will also give me a Bat Mitzvah for my child on the date I want, but they only require one day of Religious School and their dues are much cheaper than yours.

In 2019 one no longer needs a relationship with a shul or a rabbi, as it is possible to hire someone to teach your child and they will bring a Torah to the country club and you can have the Bar/Bat Mitzvah without ever entering a shul at all. The funeral home will be glad, for a fee, to find you a rabbi who will preside over the services of your beloved father – so what if the hired rabbi did not know you, you get what you need, and for a lot less.

I worry if a Judaism that is only transactional can survive. I wonder if it can sustain our souls, nurture our hopes, maintain our commitments, and ignite our imaginations the way relational Judaism has and does.

Shavuot is the defining holiday of what it means to be Jewish. Thousands of years ago we were a nation recently liberated from slavery. We stood at the foot of Mt. Sinai and were introduced to God and Torah. We did not ask, what's in it for me? We did not say, You know God, I hear there is a god a couple of mountains over who is offering the same deal with only five Commandments. Can you maybe sweeten your offer? No, according to the Torah we said: Naaseh, V'nishma! We will do and we will understand. We entered into a relationship, we made a commitment and the result has been a 4000 year love relationship that is still going strong!

Shavuot has been described as a wedding and Judaism as a love relationship between God and His people. The Torah is our marriage contract.

It is a beautiful image – one we re-create each year in our celebration of Shavuot. We are a people who are in love with God. And we believe God is in love with us. At its most basic, Judaism is about relationships. Our relationships with those we love are what give our life meaning.

I love my wife and she loves me. I love my children and they love me. I love my friends and they love me. I love my shul, I love my rabbi. I enter all of these relationships – because they give my life meaning and texture. They give it purpose and substance. I have to give, in order to make each of these relationships work but I get so much more than I give.

Do I wonder sometimes if there are better wives, better children, better friends, better shuls out there? No, not for a second – because this is MY family, MY friends, MY community. Their value to me is not the result of anything they are or do for me – their value is that they are, and that they are mine. Naaseh V'nishma – I do and I understand. I "husband" and I become loved as a husband. I "father" and I become loved as a father. I "friend" and I become a beloved friend. I "rabbi" and I become your rabbi.

Shavuot comes to remind us that relational Judaism is the only kind of Judaism that is worth preserving. We are a people in love with God and with Torah.

You are cordially invited to attend the wedding – which, God willing, will be held at Temple Beth Sholom on Shavuot which begins Saturday night June 8, Sunday and Monday June 9th and 10th. Rabbi Lucas, Rabbi Allen and Cantor Barnoy will be officiating.

CANTOR'S NOTES

by Cantor Ofer Barnoy

Summer

Summer. a time to "get outta town" and clear your head, take a deep breath, smell the roses, soak in the sun and come back to another work season refreshed. Of course, I realize this isn't so for everyone, as summer for some represents their busiest time at work and they must muscle through it, but for most rabbis and cantors it is an opportunity for a respite before the crush of the High Holiday season that follows. My favorite activity during summer is to visit Israel to see my mother, brother and sisters, many cousins, nephews and nieces, and the rest of our brethren in our homeland. While I sometimes have an opportunity to visit Israel during the winter, somehow it always seems more rushed then as there is always something pressing to get back to at home. During the summer I love the fact that I can go there for a few weeks and just be another Israeli, get up in the morning and say "hey, what wonderful town should we visit today?" and just go do it. That extra breadth of allotted time in the summer makes all the difference. While New York is my physical home, Israel is my spiritual home. I always rent a car to drive Marsha and me around the country because I hate being tied down to a schedule like all the other "tourists". I am a tourist anywhere else in the world, but in Israel I feel at home and at peace.

Sadly, this summer I am not scheduled to visit Israel because ,as you are all aware from my bulletin article last month, we are going there in November to lead our "shalom riders" cycling team in the "Israel ride". This summer Marsha and I will still take the opportunity to travel to new places in the US to visit family and that's why the arrival of summer is so exciting, as we look forward to every new experience.

Let me also plant a seed in your mind for summer of 2020, when Marsha and I will lead a 10-day tour of Italy during which we will visit Rome, Florence and Venice with a possible extension to Sicily and Israel. This is a trip being conducted by my beloved Cantors Assembly, so you will also have the opportunity to meet hundreds of participants from around the country. Four years ago we toured together in Spain and it was so much fun!! This trip to Italy promises to be even better so don't miss it! More information will be sent to the congregation soon.

I take this opportunity to wish all of you a wonderful summer full of fun, meaningful activities and exciting experiences. Take my advice – visit Israel this summer. They are still floating on the high of the very successful Eurovision song contest that they hosted in Tel Aviv in May and you can still visit the beautiful "Eurovision village" that was built especially for that event, so go be part of the exciting action ,as I am sure it will last into the summer and beyond. If you are heading somewhere else like we are – wherever you roam, may God be with you and bring you home safely and in good health.

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI URI ALLEN

by Rabbi Uri Allen

Summertime on Long Island

Ah...Summer.

The school year is over, the weather is sunny and warm, and there is just that feeling in the air...summer. After a full year of learning and work, of life cycle events, of the ups and downs that accompany our fast-paced and interconnected world, what a pleasure it is to welcome the next couple months.

Hopefully there will be time for relaxing, for the beach, for family gatherings, for BBQs, and for travel. You deserve it!

As I complete my first year as Associate Rabbi of Temple Beth Sholom, one of the things I am looking forward to over this summer is to do some thinking and reflecting about the past year of transition. I'll be considering individual programs that we piloted, like Blue Jeans Shabbat. My mind will spend some time thinking about my sermons and teaching opportunities. Makom, our teen engagement platform, will be undergoing some tweaks and adjustments based on what I learned over the year.

But even with all of that musing over professional success, growth areas, and what comes next, I expect that most of my memories and reflecting will involve you. That is to say, you – the congregation and community that makes up TBS – have been so welcoming not only to me, but to Sari and our children. We are truly blessed to be a part of this community and we feel fortunate to be able to serve such a warm, inviting, and vibrant congregation.

I'd also like to take this opportunity to mention that, though our program schedule is pretty light for the summer, there are still many opportunities to join together for community in the coming couple of months. Our daily minyan will still take place every morning and evening, and we could use your support. With various travel schedules and the like, our minyan over the summer really benefits from the extra effort you make to try and attend. Even once or twice a month really makes a difference. Shabbat services are definitely still happening each week. Our services over the summer are quite lovely with most of the leadership roles being taken by people just like you. And of course, we join for delicious kiddush after the services.

Keep your eyes out for a few special programs that are in the hopper for the summer. We will share information with you as they develop.

But for now, I want to close simply by offering my thanks and gratitude for your participation and commitment to co-creating the outstanding community we call Temple Beth Sholom. I know Sari and our children join me in this feeling and we can't wait to see what the future holds for next year.

Have a wonderful summer!

Rabbi Uri D. Allen

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

by Rebecca Altman

As I sit here on this beautiful Memorial Day, writing, what could have been my last bulletin article, I realize how fortunate we are here at Temple Beth Sholom. I feel honored, to be the first of our presidents to be leading this congregation for a third year and to be working again with Michael Schor as my Executive Vice President. This past year, we made several changes to our constitution to make it more current and inclusive. Amongst several other updates, we changed the language and the term limits and titles for some of our executive board positions. Several of our wonderful Executive Board members will be continuing in their current positions. Debbie Dubowsky will move to secretary, and the position of Vice President and Finance and Fundraising (Morty Schaja) is now called Vice President of Finance, the Vice President of Programming is now Vice President of Administration (Lewis Bartell) and the Vice President of Membership will be called Vice President of Community Engagement (Ellen Walk). These updates reflect the changing times of our society.

I would like to reflect on some of the great things we did in 2018-2019 and what to look forward to for this upcoming year. But first, I would be remiss if I did not mention some of the difficulties and challenges that we faced. Unfortunately, Anti-Semitic acts seem to be on the rise. College campuses and synagogues all over the country are being touched by these cruel actions. We stood together as a community after the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh suffered an unthinkable tragedy. We prayed with our neighbors of other faiths after the massacre in New Zealand. We listened in horror to the news of a shooting at Chabad in Poway. Events such as these remind us that we are all here for each other, in the good and the bad. We come together to celebrate simchas, I was lucky to celebrate with all of you as my daughter, Rachel became a Bat Mitzvah in March, but we also all come together in sorrow and solidarity.

Several new initiatives were begun this year, and will continue into next year. We have been working diligently on security. We have enhanced our security measures and have received and applied for several grants that will enable us to make other changes. We have spent the year reviewing plans and ideas for a sanctuary renovation. We want to update the sanctuary and make it more handicap accessible. We hope to be able to officially kick off this campaign during the High Holidays. We welcomed our new Associate Rabbi, Uri Allen, to our Temple Beth Sholom family. We look forward to continuing our relationship with him into the coming year and to continue to benefit from Rabbi Allen's wisdom, guidance and leadership. We also are changing the time of our Shabbat morning service in the sanctuary to 9:45 am. The Preliminary Service and Shacharit Service will be at 9 am, then everyone will come together in the sanctuary at 9:45 am. We are confident that this is a positive change as we move into the new year.

Just a few short weeks ago, Rabbi Lucas announced his upcoming retirement in June 2020. As we each process the announcement that our esteemed Rabbi of 27 years will be leaving us, this gives us an opportunity to contemplate the future for Temple Beth Sholom. In the next several months, a very small exploratory committee will be reaching out to the congregation to get a pulse of what you want for us for the future. We want to better understand your needs and prepare for the senior Rabbi search in 2020-2021. The committee will be sending surveys and conducting interviews and small focus groups so that different constituencies can give their feedback and ideas.

We still have several more events through the end of June, before we begin the busy process this summer of preparing for the High Holidays.

Join Temple Beth Sholom on June 2nd as we join Jews from all over New York in Manhattan to march in the Israeli Day Parade. Please join us for services on Shavuot morning, Sunday, June 9th, where we will recognize the confirmation of our Makom 10th grade students and graduation of our 12th grade students. We will also have a fun-filled Mini Minyan service that day followed by a Shavuot ice cream party. On Friday night, June 14th we will have our final Friday Night Live! Hope you can attend the barbecue dinner first. On June 15th, we will be having our brick dedication. We will gather in the courtyard with Rabbi Lucas as we dedicate all of the bricks that were purchased this past year. We hope you will continue to support Temple Beth Sholom and honor or memorialize a loved one by purchasing a brick in our courtyard.

On June 6th Sisterhood will be installing their new board. Thank you to Roya Mizrahi for another outstanding year as president. We are happy to welcome Helaine Kurtzman as the new Sisterhood President and Rose Gole Warshawsky as the incoming Executive Vice President. I would also like to thank Evan Wagner for another great year as Men's Club President and we look forward to another wonderful year with him.

FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

by Donna Bartolomeo

June is such an exciting month. All the schools have ended and we are preparing for summer camp. The beautiful weather gets us ready for the BBQ and Friday Night Live Services on June 14.

It's hard to believe that I am completing my 13th year at TBS. I look back at the planning we have done together and simchas we have shared and sometimes tears we have shed and realize that we have accomplished much, but there is more to do. How do we get more people from the community into TBS? One of the ways is our Family Fun Festival on September 8th. An afternoon of games, rides, food, and much more. If you would like to be part of the committee please send me an email or give me a call.

Sharon Solomon has been the Religious School Director for 13 years and TBS will be honoring her on Friday evening, September, 20, with a service and dinner.

TBS was approached this year for the show POWER which is on HBO. Two parts of episodes were shot in my office and on the property right off of the light on Roslyn Road. The episodes of POWER will air sometime in July.

The year was filled with programs like Cantors on Dueling Pianos Concert, Six13 a cappella group, Shabbateen, Blue Jeans Shabbat and so much more. There is always something for everyone at TBS.

Not everyone is lucky enough to work with amazing people each day. I am. The professional staff, Executive Board, Board of Trustees, members and volunteers have been there to lend a hand, give advice and sometimes just to listen.

My office staff – Barbara, Kathy, and Danielle, I cannot thank you enough for all you do and your dedication and hard work throughout the year.

Bob and the rest of the maintenance staff are hard working and dedicated employees who, in a moment's notice, are ready to go. Thank you.

Have a wonderful safe summer!!

FROM MAKOM

by Rabbi Uri Allen, Makom Director

As we enter the summer months, I want to take this opportunity to offer my thanks and gratitude to the students, parents and teachers who have helped shape Makom this year. What began as an experiment to group together all of our teen offerings at TBS, has yielded many lessons that we will be building on for next year.

With the help of Sharon Solomon and the guidance of Rabbi Lucas, we have put together some exciting offerings to help students transition from the earlier years of religious school to our full high school program. There will be times when 8th grade joins the high school, times when they will be with the middle school, and times for special and unique programming just for 8th graders.

We look forward to a great year ahead for Makom!

Have a wonderful summer!

Please join us on June 11th for a congregational meeting, board meeting, and Installation of Officers and Trustees. On behalf of Temple Beth Shalom, I would like to thank those trustees who are retiring from the board and hope they will continue their involvement in other ways. Thank you to Sanford Berger, Cindy Feldman, Adam Gross, Marc Magid, Rose Schechter and Susan Zelman.

It is with great pleasure that I welcome Alonna Ostad, Samantha Fensterman, Billy Goldstein, Boaz Ben Moshe, Sharone Gilbert and Ronit Hakimi to the Board of Trustees and look forward to their participation.

This past year, we had some great and memorable events. The Cantors on Dueling Pianos in November, Inclusion Shabbat in February, Six13 a cappella group in March, Club TBS in March, and Blue Jean and Shabateen Shabbat in April just to name a few. Thank you to everyone who helped to plan and support these events.

We hope to kick off 2019-2020 with a Family Fun Festival on September 8. This will be a fun filled day for the whole family that will be open to the community. On September 20 we will be honoring Sharon Solomon at "Shabbat Sharon" and recognizing her for her 13 years of dedication as Director of our Religious School. We would love volunteers to help plan both of these events.

Mark your calendars for a Shabbaton the weekend of November 23 in memory of Bernice Cohen. David Galinkin will be our guest speaker for the weekend.

Finally, save the date for the 10th anniversary of Club TBS on February 1. We hope you will all join us.

Wishing you all a peaceful and relaxing summer!!

BARNET & ANNETTE OSTROW EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER

by Suzy Freier, Director of Early Childhood Center

It is hard to believe that the 2018/2019 school year is almost over. This school year was filled with so much happiness, fun, learning and giggles.

We still have the ice cream truck to look forward to on June 3rd. The children love choosing their own ice cream and then enjoying it outside. Sticky hands and faces are all part of the fun! Each classroom will have an end-of-the-year party where the parents are invited. This day, June 6th, is bitter sweet as we like to celebrate together but saying good-bye is always hard. We look forward to seeing our 2s and 3s in September.

Our Moving Up Ceremony for the Pre-K classes will be held on June 7th. The 24 children will walk in their gowns to receive their preschool diplomas, sing some songs for their families and friends and enjoy a reception with food and entertainment. A lot of congratulations will be said and hugs will be given.

I am so proud of all of the Early Childhood Center students.

Have a wonderful summer and I can't wait to see you soon.

Warmly, Suzy

This year was a special year – celebrating Israel@71. Daled, Hay and Vav students presented extraordinary projects, art murals, and research displays showing all that they learned. ## MEN'S CLUB CORNER

by Evan Wagner, President

June marks the end of the year for Men's Club. It has been a terrific year. Some of our highlights have been, Comedy Night, Craft Brewery while watching football, Scotch with Spike and many other great events. It has truly been an honor to be the Men's Club President for two years. I guess I am doing something right, I am staying on for a 3rd year. That being said I need to thank some people for everything they have done over the past two years. If I left anyone out, please know I did not do it on purpose. First, thank you to everyone who has come to one or more events. I hope you had a good time. Alan Goldstein, you are amazing, I do not think there is a mean bone in your body. Thank you for being the easiest person to work with. Steven Goldenberg, even though you are away almost every other week nowadays you still take the time to lay out the calendar for me and you are always there to answer any questions. Mike Altman, Evan Granovsky, Peter Agulnick, Lance Kessler, Jay Dubowsky and Len Bergman; it means so much to know you will always be there to do whatever is asked of you, David Levine, Joe Bruck and everyone else who is at every event and every meeting. Thank you for everything.

Every Men's Club event is always a good time had by all. The problem is, it is always the same people taking advantage of it. I urge you all to sign up for our events you will not be sorry.

Respectfully Yours,

Evan

SISTERHOOD SCOOP

by Roya Mizrahi, Sisterhood President

Sisterhood Moves On...

Sisterhood Installation is June 6 at 7:45

Our Sisterhood Shabbat was great. Our services were proudly led by members. Many of them, including myself, learned these skills through programs and classes offered by our Sisterhood. Thank you to all who participated and to our special guests, Margie Miller, International Women's League President, and Anise Parnes, BQLI Region President.

Sisterhood has been a proud arm of Temple Beth Sholom since its inception. Sisterhood has always been dedicated to providing excellent social and educational programming for our members. From our courses, lunch and learn series, discussion groups, film series, museum and theater groups, Rosh Chodesh celebrations, challah and hamantaschen baking and so much more. We have worked to meet the needs of our constituency and the Temple membership at large. We brought notable authors to speak at the Temple. We learned about the History and Story of Persian Rugs from experts. We had an open dialogue with psychologist Dr Norman Fried and Rabbi Lucas about the Conservative movement's acceptance of gay Jews and gay marriage.

We have donated to other worthwhile community organizations including those that assist the homeless and refugee communities in the area. We donated over 100 coats at our annual Neighbors Helping Neighbors Coat Drive. We donated to Ohr Torah Stone/ Jewish Learning Center, Kosher Troops, Hatzilu and to Jewish National Fund. We participated in the drive to help teens dress for prom, donating gowns, pocketbooks and jewelry. We brought care packages to a women's shelter called Broken But Not Destroyed. We purchased chumashim and siddurim for students of the TBS Religious School. In addition, Sisterhood has provided needed funds for TBS operations and programs.

Thank you to all of my VPs. I couldn't have done this without your help.

On June 3rd, our educational classes will celebrate the end of another year of learning by leading a Shacharit service. This year Sisterhood will honor Phyllis Pellman, our co-VP of Tikkun Olam. During the past two years she ran our Rosh Chodesh classes and helped with community luncheon.

Sisterhood will conclude another wonderful year on June 6 with a dessert reception to welcome and honor incoming Sisterhood President Helaine Kurtzman and Executive Vice President, Rose Gole Warshawsky, and the Slate of Officers and Board members

Helaine Kurtzman & Rose Gole Warshawsky

We had so much fun at our last board meeting playing bingo!

for 2019 – 2020 who will be installed that evening. Please come and show your support! (Check out our slate of officers posted in the lobby.)

Helaine Kurtzman brings 20 years of experience on the Sisterhood Board to the presidency, first as treasurer, and then as recording secretary. A former elementary school teacher in Queens, she was a leader in the teachers' union and ran many meetings. Helaine is still involved in education and operates a business called Faculty Tutoring with her husband

Fred. They have three adult sons: Andrew, Jonathan and Lawrence. Helaine is a graduate of Russell Sage College in Troy, NY, where she majored in history and political science. The Kurtzmans are longtime Temple Beth Sholom members. Helaine is very excited about leading our Sisterhood.

Rose Gole Warshawsky is our incoming Executive Vice President. She is retiring in June from her position as a managing attorney for the Internal Revenue Service, where she has worked since graduating from Boston University Law School. She and her husband Martin, a physician at Mount Sinai Elmhurst Hospital, have been members of the synagogue for the past 15 years, and sons Ian and Todd, both college students, graduated from the religious school. Rose is a first-generation American. Her father was a Holocaust survivor and her mother was an Austrian. She has served on the Yom Hashoah program committee, and chaired several Holocaust commemoration services, at TBS. She is looking forward to her new role as a Sisterhood leader.

On June 13 the BQLI Region of Women's League for Conservative Judaism Annual Gala dinner will be held at Shelter Rock Jewish Center, when we will honor Cindy Feldman as the 2019 Woman of Achievement Award ceremony. The evening will be filled with fun and gratitude.

My sisters and members of Sisterhood of Temple Beth Sholom, it has been a true honor to serve as your President for the past two years. You inspire me each and every day.

To those of you who have not joined yet, I invite you to share in the learning, the community, the fun and the joy!

Have a wonderful summer! Become a Sisterhood member!

THE JOSHUA SOCIETY

In Proverbs 27:18 Joshua says:

“WHOEVER TENDS THE TREE WILL EAT ITS FRUIT.”

As the protégé and successor of Moses, Joshua was a dreamer and a doer - a visionary and leader who ultimately led the Jews into Israel.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE JOSHUA SOCIETY WILL BE BOTH DREAMERS AND DOERS, LEADING AND STRENGTHENING FOR TOMORROW.

BethRock USY Happenings

By Daniel Bacharach, BethRock USY Youth Director

Although it is hard to believe, another year of BethRock USY, and my first as Youth Director, has come to a close! We've had a great year with some exciting programs – from Krav Maga in the Sukkah to a Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream Seder to a Yom Ha'atzmaut celebration! We've had so many opportunities for fun, social actions and informal education throughout this programming year, and our teens have also had the opportunity to attend some incredible divisional and regional events to network with their peers from across the New York metropolitan area!

Our incredible year would not have been possible without the efforts of so many individuals. First and foremost, I want to thank our USY Chapter Board members, who planned and executed our monthly programs and conducted regular outreach to our members. Yasher Koach to Hannah Roth (President), Lilli Roth (Israel Affairs VP), Ari Schor (Religion/Education VP), Evan Lipman (Social Actions/Tikun Olam VP), Rachel Shlefstein (Membership/Kadima VP), and AJ Rahmanan (Communications VP) for a job well done! Barbara, Kathy, and Eddie also deserve a huge thank you for all of their logistical support, and to Lewis Bartell for his support throughout the year as our Temple Beth Sholom Youth Chair!

Finally, mazel tov our seniors who are graduating and heading off to bigger and better things—Justin Janoson, Hannah Roth, Sophie Roth, Tali Schor, Josh Shlefstein, Abi Ward, and Ariel Wajnrajch! We wish them all nothing but success in college and beyond!

We look forward to seeing the rest of you when we start up again in September!

Wishing all of you a fun-filled and safe summer,

Daniel

We know what it takes to make a strong Jewish community.
Doing our job well is just the beginning.

We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve the community in times of growth and happiness as well as times of grief. It's not surprising we've served the Jewish community for over 100 years. How we've served is the surprising part. David Rubin and his entire staff work tirelessly in serving the Jewish community, but then, that's part of our philosophy and tradition.

We believe to be a good funeral director, you should serve and give back to the community.

David Rubin, Vice President
