THE CAKEMAKER

93Queen (Documentary, 1h 30 m)
January 10

Director, Paula Eiselt

In the Hasidic enclave of Borough Park, Brooklyn, a group of tenacious Hasidic women are smashing the patriarchy in their community by creating the first all-female volunteer ambulance corps in New York City. These courageous women bring about change in their community from within.

A Bag of Marbles (Drama, 1 h 53 m)
January 31

Director, Christian Duguay

A big screen adaptation of Joseph Joffo's classic novel set in WWII. Based on Joffo's own story, the film chronicles the frenzied journey of two clever, young Jewish brothers in German-occupied France who escape a roundup in Paris and bravely make their way across France to reunite with their family.

306 Hollywood (Documentary, 1 h 34 m)
February 21

Directors, Jonathan Bogarin, Elan Bogarin

A magical realist documentary of two Jewish siblings who undertake an archaeological excavation of their late grandmother's house. The pair embark on a journey from their mother's home in New Jersey to ancient Rome. They search for what remains of life in the objects their grandmother left behind.

The Cakemaker (Drama, 1 h 53 m)
March 7

Director, Ophir Raul Graizer

Thomas, a young German baker, is having an affair with Oren, an Israeli married man who has frequent business visits in Berlin. When Oren dies in a car crash, Thomas travels to Jerusalem seeking answers regarding his death. Under a fabricated identity, Thomas infiltrates into the life of Anat, his lover's newly widowed wife. Thomas takes a job as a baker in Anat's Jerusalem café, and gets involved in her life far beyond his expectations.
