WHY JOIN SISTERHOOD/Z'HAVAH YOUNG LEADERS?

Sisterhood supports our synagogue & community & offers classes, speakers, hands-on creative expression, & a network of women who enjoy Jewish life. TBS Sisterhood is an award-winning affiliate of Women's League for Conservative Judaism.

Whether it's dropping off Shabbat dinner to bereaved temple families, hosting lunch with entertainment for seniors, running the Judaica Shop or creating Purim baskets, our Sisterhood makes a difference for so many people.

A rainbow of smiles at Challah-braiding's Parashat Noach family challah bake.

Z'havah Young Leaders & ECC moms with Sari Allen (right) preparing for an early hamantaschen baking session.

The baking continued into the evening with Deborah Agulnick (right), helping families bring the joy of Purim home!

Mah-jong & Canasta players enjoy time together at Sisterhood's Games Day.

WLCJ-BQLI Region Helen Cytryn Study Day, hosted by TBS Sisterhood.

Rosh Hashanah lemon cake from Sunflower Bakery where caring is the main ingredient!

Honoring Phyllis Pellman at Sisterhood spring Shacharit.

Presentation to Beth Eichenholtz, fall Torah Fund honoree, by Rabbi Alan B. Lucas.

Architectural guided tour of NYC synagogues with Sanford Berger.

Author Talk with Jen Glantz, selling her book Always a Bridesmaid for Hire bringing humor & meaning to her stories on growing up.

You'll have your choice of so many activities:

Social events, challah & hamantaschen baking, Judaica crafts, films, book discussions, Broadway theater, Rosh Chodesh Group, Tikkun Olam projects, talks by notable authors, Jewish learning, lessons in Bridge, & more!

Please support our work by becoming a member or renewing your membership each year. Just fill out the form & return it to us with your check.
