Sukkot

Celebration

*A Time To Be Thankful,
A Time To Celebrate, A Time To Reflect*

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 2020 • 8 PM FOLLOWING MA'ARIV SERVICES

Experiencing a Pandemic has brought the realization of the fragility of our very existence into our daily consciousness. How relevant is the lesson of Sukkot today- a holiday that celebrates the joy of our existence yet recognizes that our security, our happiness and our very existence is indeed tenuous.

Please join us as we celebrate the wonderful things that life has to offer while we reflect on the lessons that we have learned from our great leaders.

In the tradition of the Lurianic Kabbalah, the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Shalom invites you and your family to meet 7 Ushpizin, exalted guests – Biblical, Historical and Modern – whose lives serve as an inspiration to all of us.
