WEEKLY CLASSES

Is Anybody Out There: Reflections on the Power of Prayer through a Biblical Lens:

Prayer is an essential part of people and cultures worldwide since ancient times. Why do people have the need to pray? What kind of prayers exist? What are we trying to convey and achieve through prayer? And the big question – is anyone listening? Does God hear our prayers? In this course, we will analyze the above questions through the lens of different Biblical characters who prayed, focusing on the content of their prayers. Through an examination of specific prayers uttered by Moses, David, Chana and King Solomon, we will reflect on whether we personally connect with their prayers, and how they may speak to us in present day times.

Instructor: Zahava Rosenfeld
Dates: Weekly on Tuesdays 1/4, 1/11, 1/18, 1/25, 2/1, 2/8, 2/15
Time: 10:30-11:30 AM on Zoom
Requirement: Bible

Yiddishkeit:

The Colorful rhetoric of Yiddish will connect us with our family, our childhood, our traditions and each other. We will study spoken and written Yiddish, and enjoy phrases, folk songs, poetry and literature.

Instructor: Ruth Solomon
Dates: Weekly on Thursdays 1/13, 1/20, 1/27, 2/3, 2/10, 2/17
